ScotEID Library

BVD Guidance

Written By: HuntlyOffice1

Step 1 — BVD Guidance

 Underneath the cattle header, click on BVD Guidance

Step 2 — BVD Guidance

PresentationsPodcasts

A ban on knowingly selling/moving cattle infected with BVDV;
 Requiring the herd's BVD status to be declared before sale; and,
 Restrictions on untested herds/animals
 Anyone with any concerns should not hesitate to contact the BVD helpline help@scoteld.com / 0300 244 9823 (open from 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday).
 Non-breeding herd declaration

 Non-breeding herd declaration

 Official guidance on the BVD eradication programme:

 Phase 5 at a glance summary
 Official Farmer guidance (Phase 5)
 The official Scot Gov BVD page

The Royal Veterinary College (RVC) also has a page on BVD which contains numerous useful resources, including:

 A new page with an overview of guidance on BVD will show. There are hyperlinks highlighted in blue on the page that once clicked on, will download or open a new page

This document was generated on 2022-09-03 08:32:42 PM (MST).

If you require further assistance, please contact ScotEID on 01466 794323.