Further information

- Active status means the holding must start the CBI and complete it within 12 months of the start date. The keeper must make arrangements to get an individual BVD status for every animal on the holding.
- Complete status means the holding had an individual negative status for every animal on the holding, at which point the CBI completion certificate has been signed by the private vet. Holdings with complete status must test all calves born on the holding in the 12 months following CBI completion.
- Suspended status means the holding has been signed out of the CBI by the private vet. These holdings have BVD negative status. The trigger for the herd status renewal date reverts to the last herd status set by a BVD approved laboratory.

The presence of untested may animals in the herd for more than 40 days will change the herd status back to BVD not negative.

If the 'last clear date' column is empty it means that the holding has been BVD not negative since before 2016-05-30.
